

Don Curt is the founder and Managing Partner of CIO Services, LLC, a Georgia based company specializing in IT management consulting and interim CIO services.

Prior to establishing CIO Services, Don held three consecutive CIO positions with multi-billion dollar organizations including Exide Technologies, GNB, and GE Power Systems global services division. In these positions he developed and executed IT strategy on a global basis, including implementation of eight full ERP systems, total infrastructure upgrades, operational best practices institution, offshore outsourcing management, IT/Business alignment and strategic application development. Industry experience is diverse including services, distribution, manufacturing and financial services.

In the earlier portion of his 18 years with General Electric Don held numerous line management positions, in addition to his IT roles, in services, sales, marketing and engineering.

Don holds a MS in Information Systems from George Mason University, an MBA from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, and a BS in Engineering from the US Merchant Marine Academy.